

German (mixed classes held at both sites)

Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To introduce yourself to the class and your teachers and get to know other members of the class• To revise GCSE vocabulary• To revise present, future, perfect and imperfect tenses• To express opinions about a social or global issue you feel strongly about and revise/pre-learn some vocabulary useful for A Level topics• To reactivate your German speaking skills
Context	Yourself! Your own interests in German culture and society
Assignment	Prepare a 5–6-minute German presentation, introducing yourself to the class and your teachers
Things to consider	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Do not use an online translator but make judicious use of dictionaries and helpful websites/resources (see suggestions below).- Consider limiting the amount of text on each slide and referring to postcards for your notes.- Ensure you have carefully proof-read and spell-checked your presentation.- Will you read a script or refer to bullet point notes?- Speak clearly and slowly and project your voice.- Consider producing a vocabulary list to provide for other members of the class if you use any unusual or advanced vocabulary in your presentation.
Essential documents	No essential documents but you will find your prepared GCSE conversation questions to be an extremely useful resource for this presentation
Useful links	www.wordreference.com (good online dictionary) www.linguee.com (another online dictionary which is useful for finding the German version of idiomatic English phrases) www.google.de (search a German phrase in speech marks and see how many hits it gets – a good way of seeing if your phrasing is idiomatically German) https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zhh2gwx Clear explanations of the key tenses
Deadline	Week commencing Monday 2 nd September
Feedback	No formal marks will be given. Informal, positive and constructive verbal feedback will be given on: effort, content, pronunciation, accuracy, range of vocabulary and structures and presentation skills.